

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Our family finally has peace and quiet at night during dinner. We never realized how many telemarketing calls we received and how annoying they were. Please do not change Indiana's law regarding telemarketing.